ABOUT MU SOCHUA: A member of the Cambodian Parliament, Mu Sochua has dedicated her life to empowering women and to ending the horrors of child trafficking. Her work as an activist is highlighted in REDLIGHT, a powerful documentary that uses footage smuggled out of the brothels and harrowing testimonials to expose the global issue of human trafficking. The documentary is narrated by UNICEF Goodwill Ambassador Lucy Liu. To learn more about the film, visit www.redlightthemovie.com

PROCEEDS of these fund-raising events will support Mu Sochua's anti-trafficking and humanitarian work. Checks made out to Vital Voices Global Partnership (with "Mu Sochua Program" in the memo line) should be sent to Roberta Cooper, P.O. Box 3363, Westport, CT 06880. Please indicate which screening you will attend. All contributions, payable to Vital Voices Global Partnership, are tax-deductible.

For more information about the events or to RSVP, contact Roberta Cooper at robertacooper@optonline.net or 203-227-8973.

JOIN THE HOST COMMITTEE: Members of the Host Committee are invited to attend a reception with Mu Sochua and director Guy Jacobson at Lounsbury House in Ridgefield on November 14; will receive special recognition on invitations and programs; and tickets for use at either screening.

ABOUT VITAL VOICES: Vital Voices Global Partnership is an international non-profit organization that identifies, trains, mentors and empowers emerging women leaders and social entrepreneurs around the globe, enabling them to transform lives and accelerate peace and prosperity in their communities.
